Historical Sites in Milton Keynes

Written by Lauren Spencer, Year 7

Although Milton Keynes is a new city, it has many historical sites.

Here are just some of them...

The Peace Pagoda

This was built by the monks and nuns of the Nipponzan Myohoji in 1979. This was the first Peace Pagoda to be built in the Western Hemisphere and is all about Lord Buddha. It is located at Willen Lake.

The Roman Villa at Bancroft

Here you can walk around the remains of what the Romans left behind when they were here.

Tickford Bridge

This is the oldest working iron bridge in the country which is still used. The bridge has recently celebrated its 200 hundred year birthday. Here is a newspaper article of the event.

Bletchley Park

This is also known as Station X. It was the home to the famous Codebreakers of the Second World War. Bletchley Park remained a secret for over 30 years after the War.
